

Missional Worker Ministry Ideas

A Missional Worker...

- Desires to reach a specific group of people with the Gospel of Jesus Christ
- Acts on that desire by starting ministry efforts on a volunteer basis
- Can be anyone from Junior High age on up who is intent on reaching people with Jesus' love
- May lead a home group in Bible Study, prayer, worship, and service to others
- May gather fellow Middle School, High School, or University Students to study the Word, pray, discuss faith-life, and serve others
- May start a special serving ministry with a group of like-minded people
- May start a ministry of prayer and the study of the Scriptures in a nursing home or senior daycare facility
- May begin a neighborhood moms group to grow relationships and discuss faith
- May start a neighborhood children's ministry
- May gather a group of co-workers for study and prayer
- May spearhead mission or evangelistic outreach to a specific ethnic or cultural group
- May start a ministry of sending encouragement cards to people in need who are inside and outside a congregation
- May start a prayer ministry
- May spearhead a welcome ministry in a congregation or in a neighborhood
- May help start a satellite church for an existing congregation
- May start a church from scratch in a neighborhood or community gathering place
- May start a creative, outreaching ministry that isn't on this page!
- Will make Jesus' difference in the world!
